To Whom It May Concern:

I am so thankful for your decision to contract with Commercial Window Installers to complete the window/door installation project at Colony Park Apartments in Carol Stream. Every employee of this company with whom we have come in contact is highly skilled and graciously kind. The two gentlemen that worked in my apartment not only completed the job in an incredibly professional manner, they honored me by inquiring about my well-being and helped carry in my groceries.

It is obvious that this company is comprised of people who care about people. People who prioritize relationship. People who value the dignity of each other and those whom they serve. And in light of the beautifully installed new window and doors in my apartment, they are also people who care about the quality of their work. They are excellent craftsman; they are compassionate individuals.

With great appreciation,
